MARCH 1-20, 2010

NEW! Summit Oatmeal Stout & Gouda Bread

*Tuesday, Friday
(and Saturday if it lasts)*

We've paired up with our favorite local brewery and you can taste the results. A sturdy bread that stands up to your meat sandwiches, corned beef, soups and stews.

Irish Soda Bread

*Tuesday through Friday
From March 2nd to 20th*

This outstanding favorite is rich in buttermilk and raisins with a hint of caraway.

Reuben Rolls

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

We've taken the classic rye bread and wrapped it around corned beef, sauerkraut and Swiss cheese to make a great tasting roll. Much like our Pepperoni Roll, it can be sliced and served as a side dish – or it can become a meal in itself.

NEW! Baileys® Irish Bread Pudding

Thursday through Saturday

Real cream and Baileys Irish Cream create the perfect accent for this rich bread pudding. Warm it up and serve with lightly whipped cream for a delicious dessert.

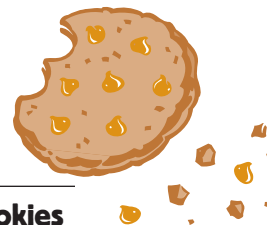

Hot Cross Buns!

Friday and Saturday

Lightly spiced little buns with raisins, currants and dried cranberries. Frosted to perfection.

Sweet Treats

Oatmeal Scotchies

Tuesday and Wednesday

Pumpkin White Chocolate Cookies

Thursday through Saturday

Mint Chocolate Chip Scone

Thursday through Saturday

Emerald Isle Scones

Friday

Crème de Menthe Brownies

Wednesday through Saturday

Baileys Irish Bread Pudding

Now you can enjoy one of four reserved 15 minute parking spots in the parking lot on the north side of Selby! Just for Great Harvest customers during store hours. We like collaborating with our neighbors, but have felt that things were getting a little too squashed during lunch time. So you can feel confident driving our direction for lunchtime errands and knowing we have a place for you to park. Please respect the 15 minute time allotment.
